Appendix B

ARDF Report

The General Conference 2002 in San Marino was a milestone in the development of ARDF in Region 1.

The Final Plenary approved the new Rule for Championships in ARDF which gives more fairness to the competitors and more flexibility to the Working Group.

2003

In 2003 the 4th IARU Region 1 Youth Championships were hosted by the German Society DARC in Bastheim in northern Bavaria. Six member societies from Region 1 took part in this championships Czech Republic (CRC), Hungary (MRSAz), Russia (SRR), Slovakia (SARA), Serbia (Yugoslavia SRJ) and Germany (DARC). In total 42 youngsters up to 15 years of age competed in this event.

The Polish Society PZK (SP ARDF Klub) hosted the 14th IARU Region 1 Championships. The venue was Cetniewo at the Baltic Sea coast which was also the venue of the first ARDF World Championships in 1980.

21 Societies from Region 1 sent their delegations to this event. In total there were more than 360 participants, 294 of them competitors. These figures are proving the very positive development of ARDF in Region 1.

Regional Championships nowadays are not only a challenge for the competitors but also for the organizing society. The organizing team from PZK did a very good job managing the event.

The 24th Plenary Meeting of the IARU Region 1 ARDF Working Group was held during the Regional Championships. The Minutes are attached to this report.

2004

The 5th IARU Region 1 Youth ARDF Championships were held in Chisinau, Moldova from 16 to 20 June 2004. Regrettably, due to different circumstances, only 5 Region 1 societies took part - CRC (Czech Republic), ARDM (Moldova), PZK (Poland), SRR (Russia) and UARL (Ukraine). But the number of competitors was biggest ever - 40 boys and 33 girls up to 15 years old.

At the 24th Plenary Meeting of the ARDF WG in Cetniewo/Poland no society applied for hosting this Youth Championships. In November 2003 the Moldovian society ARM/FRRM applied for an official membership in the WG. Fortunately Moldovian society took also the responsibility for hosting the 5th IARU Region 1 Youth Championships. Furthermore, the organizers, headed by Mrs. Ludmila Hudeaeva, R1 ARDF WG member, run a perfect competition .

The 12th ARDF World Championships were held in Brno/CZ hosted by the Czech society CRC/AROB.

Again there was a new record in the number of participants. 31 societies from all three Regions of IARU entered 445 participants, 345 of them were competitors.

These World Championships were not only an outstanding competition but also a big media event. Professional video equipment and radio links from the transmitters in the competition area to finish and two big video walls at the finish made unforgettable impressions. All ceremonies and competitions were live streamed in the internet. After the event there was a 20 minute report on Czech Television CT2.

During the 12th ARDF World Championships the 25th Plenary Meeting of the IARU Region 1 ARDF WG was held. At this meeting guests and officials from the ARDF bodies of Region 2 and 3 were present. The minutes of the 25th Plenary Meeting of the IARU Region 1 ARDF WG is attached to this report.

The 6th IARU Region 1 Youth Championships were held in Karlovy Vary / CZ.

62 youngsters up to 15 years of age from 9 member societies competed in this event. The number of competitors is proofing the growing interest of member societies in this event. CRC/AROB did a great job in organizing this event.

At the 15th IARU Region 1 ARDF Championships about 260 competitors from 22 Region 1 member societies and one competitor from Region 2 participated. The Radio Societyies of Serbia & Montenegro and Serbia chosed the beautiful region of Tara mountainsfor the competitions.

The opening ceremony and the awarding ceremony were attended by officials from the Ministery of Defense and the Ministery of Post and Telecommunicatings.

Also the secretary of IARU, Davis Sumner, K1ZZ, attended the opening ceremony and greeted organizers, officials, competitors and visitors.

During the 15th IARU Region 1 ARDF Championships an informal meeting of the IARU Region 1 ARDF Working Group was held, preparing the 26th Plenary Meeting of ARDF WG to be held in Davos / Switzerland (see the minutes).

Many thanks to the organzing committee for doing this outstanding event!

Conclusion

- ARDF is developing very well in Region 1. This is proved by the increasing number of participating societies and competitors in Regional and World Championships.
- The IARU Region 1 Youth Championships is now an accepted event within the Region 1.
- ARDF WG is working within the given budget.

In the last years the Working Group was was working very hard in attracting more societies in ARDF. The future challenge will be to handle the big amount of competitors at international competitions.

Again changes in rules will be necessary and maybe a change in structure of the WG must be made to be prepared for a further increase of active societies. ARDF WG and their sub group rules is working already working on this.

Thanks

I like to thank all societies, referees, members of the Working Group and colleagues in Region 2 and 3 for their good cooperation and making big events a success.

Rainer Floesser, DL5NBZ Chairman IARU Region 1 ARDF WG

Appendix C

To: Mr. Rainer Floesser, Chairman of IARU R1 ARDF WG

From: ARDF Sub-Group Rules

Subject: Report from ARDF Sub-Group Rules

General remark: Every change of the Rules should improve their quality and also quality of ARDF itself. Therefore, every important change of the Rules shall be well tested at lower level competitions, results recorded and evaluated. We recommend for this purpose competitions at national level in countries with many competitors (Czech Republic, Germany, Russia, Ukraine etc.), which are comparable with IARU ARDF Championships (mainly by number of competitors and categories).

1. Competition at simultaneous bands

Details of a system as recommended by SGR: to hold two different courses at the same time on both bands. One course for younger categories with longer length (and possibly higher climb) and another course for older categories with shorter length. In addition, there is necessary to define course lengths and recommended winning times more precisely for each category.

1. course at band A:

_	Category	No. of Tx	length
	W19	4	4 8 km	(no change)
	W21	4	6 8 km	(no change)
	M19	4	4 8 km	(no change)
	M21	5	6 10 km	(no change)

2. course at band B:

	length	No. of Tx	Category
(no change)	5 7 km	4	W35
	3 5 km	4	W50
(possible new category)	2 3 km	3	W60
	6 8 km	5	M40
(no change)	5 7 km	4	M50
	4 5 km	4	M60
(possible new category)	2 3 km	3	M70

Reasons:

Pros:

- I Siting referee can easily make proper courses for all categories, more physically demanding for younger and more technically demanding for older
- I Significantly decreased concentration of competitors around transmitters
- Number of competitors and their density in the terrain at one race decreased to approximately one half
- I No principal change for competitors, no special training needed
- Only small Rules changes needed (14, 19, 25)
- The whole system is already well tested (WCH 2004)

Cons:

- I Doubles number of technical equipment in the field
- I Doubles number of referees at the transmitters

Recommendation: to use at "testing" status at WCH 2006 (provided organizer is in favour). Adopt this point at WG plenary meeting in 2006. Consider establishing new categories, if at least 5 competitors apply to participate.

2. Using 10 transmitters at one band, two frequencies

Details of a system as recommended by the SGR:

- I two sets of transmitters operate normally on two frequencies, the beacon is on the third one, preferably between those of transmitters. The two sets of transmitters are told apart by different keying speeds ("slow" and "fast"). There is no problem at 3,5 MHz band, at 144 MHz there might be some problems with receivers selectivity.
- New starting procedure: Competitors will start at every minute. The sequence could be a fixed one to be followed at every competition or a flexible one as desired by the siting referee. A typical procedure could be: Min.1: M21 (probably 2 competitors together according to the parallel start system); Min.2: M60 and W21; Min. 3: M50 and W35; Min. 4: M40 and W19; Min. 5: M 19 and W 50.
- I Each category has to search first for a tx as indicated by the siting referee. This offers the siting referee chances to plan 9 very individual courses with route choices requiring high quality direction finding. For the competitors this system will reduce nervousness at the start as they know which tx they have to find first. On the way to this first tx they can take bearings of the other tx they have to find and decide on their further route. One start channel is adequate. If a corridor must be marked should be decided by the starting referee.

Reasons:

Pros:

- I Siting referee will have much more transmitter combinations available and he will be able to build courses technically and physically appropriate to particular categories
- I Significantly decreased concentration of competitors around transmitters
- I Significantly decreased number of parallel course sections of particular categories, which will result in more uniform distribution od competitors over the competition area and will minimize the chance of "following".
- I Even "weaker" categories will search for at least 4 −5 transmitters.
- I System is already tested at national level in CZE.

Cons:

- I Doubles number of technical equipment in the field
- I Doubles number of referees at the transmitters

- 3 channels needed need of modification of all 2m receivers
- I This system differs from "normal" competitions organized at local level (need of retuning, more transmitters to be searched for and, what is more difficult, to be considered at tactical decisions)

Recommendation: not to adopt this point for now, continue testing at national level

3. Some considerations on parallel starts system

Reason: Experience from using says that there is only small problem with following, but worse problem with many competitors in the terrain at the same time. which is even worse than the first. Also rules for qualifying and selecting competitors who start together are not very exact. At all competitions, where parallel starts were used, were not equal start intervals between competitors of the same category (for example, at 10:00 started two competitors, at 10:05 none, at 10:10 one.. etc, with no regularity). The resulting contribution was therefore only small (max. 1 hour) and not worth all complications and bad feelings of competitors. The system was very quickly pushed into life and not properly tested at lower level competitions.

Recommendation: Increase a limit for using a system to 50. Make further considerations about balloting procedure used at parallel starts.

4. Other Rules changes

Recommendation: to discuss and prepare the final wording for the WG Plenary Meeting 2006.
